

SERVICE ACADEMY

Service Academy is a disciplined, physically and mentally challenging 1-year programme at Year 12. The programme will provide life skills, motivation, learning, training, and vocational options that will allow students to confidently and successfully establish their place within and contribute to New Zealand society. Students are required to attend numerous camps run by the New Zealand Defence Force. Selected students will attend further NZDF camps to develop their leadership potential.

As part of the programme, students will be required to attend Maths and English. Options are available to those students who are yet to achieve Level 1 Numeracy and Literacy. Students will also attend external training modules such as First Aid, NZ Fire Service and Coast Guard Day. Service Academy programme fee is $75. Fees cover uniform, camps, transport and external training modules.
