TERM 2 STARTS, MONDAY 29TH APRIL

NATIONAL YOUTH JAZZ CHAMPIONSHIPS

Trident High Big Band competed at the National Youth Jazz Championships last Friday in Tauranga. Competing against 17 other big bands from all around New Zealand the band played very well and despite having an inexperienced and young band, they came away from the competition with a silver medal! A fantastic result for the band under the expert guidance of Mr Spence.

Courtney Wilson (right) played the Last Post representing Trident High School at the Whakatane High School Anzac assembly on Wednesday. Well done Courtney and thank you for your representation.

TRIDENT BOYS' FOOTBALL UK TOUR

The boys' left on Sunday for a once in a lifetime opportunity visiting famous Football stadiums and playing against local school football teams and sightseeing.

"UK tour boys at Leeds Stadium enjoying our time over here".

SERVICES ACADEMY

Trident Service Academy attended an Induction Camp in March finishing off with a "March Out Parade". The camp was made up of 13 Academies from the Central and Lower North Island. Trident was paired up with Wairoa College to form "1 Platoon". The students conducted themselves extremely well over the duration of the camp. Continuing the long tradition of success in this camp, 1 Platoon was awarded 1st place for the Sports Competition and Evaluation Day. Trident Service Academy won 1st place for the fastest time over the Assault Course. Tarryn Moller received the fastest female time for the Cross Country and the Army Fitness Test. Ashanti-Paige Ranapia received Most Improved Trainee and Skye Hiroki received Top Trainee for Trident. 5 students from the Service Academy will be identified by the NZDF to attend further Leadership training in the final week of Term 1. Well done to all those who took part, we are very proud of you all!
